I am pleased to announce Dan Plunkett has accepted the position of Non-Commercial Sales Manager at the TW Garner Food Company.

In this newly created role, Dan will be responsible for c-stores, contract management, group purchasing organizations, the US Military Prime Vendor program, airlines and cruise line business.

Dan is an accomplished sales manager with over 25 years of experience in high level sales and field management positions with a proven track record of superior performance. In 2009 Dan was selected as "Sales Manager of the Year" while at Land O'Lakes Incorporated.

Dan and his family reside in the Buffalo, NY area and he is a graduate of Hobart College.

Please join me in a warm welcoming of Dan to his new position in our organization and I look forward to all of you personally meeting him over the next couple of months.
